

B'nai Abraham and Yehuda Laib Family Society Photo CD Project Volume 1 - The First 50 Years

Pictures of our family's first 50 years in America along with some pictures of family members taken elsewhere, mostly Lithuania, during the same period are on this CD in Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) format. Two files are included that contain the same set of pictures; one called ScrnPix.pdf and the other called PrntPix.pdf. The resolution of the pages in the ScrnPix version is matched to the resolution of computer monitors and yields a smaller-size, "more responsive," file that is sufficient for on-screen viewing at 100% magnification. If you want to print any of the pages or view them on-screen at higher than 100% magnification, use the PrntPix version whose images have higher resolution; many are as high as 300 dpi and few are less than 200 dpi.

Other files on this CD include:

- This Is Our History, the 2001 updated version as printed in the 100th Anniversary Edition of The Bulletin. This file is called Hstry100.pdf and is in Acrobat format.
- The complete text of the 50th Anniversary Edition of The Bulletin. This is a gem that includes reminiscences from many of the founding members about coming to America and starting a new life in the midst of their extended family. The file is called 50th.pdf and is also in Acrobat format.
- The Family Tree as best we know it on 8 August 2001. The file is named BAYLTree.htm and is in Hypertext Markup Language (HTML) format that can be read by any Web Browser. Another version of the Family Tree is included for those who have genealogy software that can import data in GEDCOM format. This file is called BAYLTree.ged.
- This information page called ThisCD.pdf in Acrobat format.

The CD is recorded in a format that can be read by Macintosh and Windows computers. The Acrobat files can be viewed with Adobe Acrobat or the Adobe Acrobat Reader. The Acrobat Reader is available free of charge, in both Mac and Windows versions, from Adobe Systems, Inc. at <http://www.adobe.com>.
